| No. | Description | Evaluation | Likelihood | Impact Level | Response Strategy | Control Measures |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | Project members may be unable to work at certain points | Tasks may be not be completed when required and estimated | Medium | Medium | Make sure that all accommodations are made for project members to be available as much as possible | Keep in contact with all project members and make sure they are accounted for and have everything they need |
| 2 | Code implementation issues. | Problems may arise when implementing code because of differences in systems | Medium | High | Make sure the specification is specific enough to make implementation issues obvious | Make sure each project member has the hardware they need and ask permission to use extra software |
| 3 | Issues with the hardware and software used during the project | Potential issues will occur when using the computers or their software. | High | Medium | Backup regularly and check for regular software updates | Make sure each project member has the hardware they need and keep an eye on all software updates |
| 4 | Not completing the project by the allocated time | For any of these reasons among others, the project could not be completed in time | Medium | High | Allocate time to individuals correctly and ask if they are happy with it | Make sure all project members are reporting progress regularly |
| 5 | The project team members are unfamiliar with software and technologies being used | The project team could be specialised in different software and hardware, meaning it will likely take more time to complete tasks | Low | High | Spend some extra time on familiarising with the software and technologies used | Make sure the most experienced member with the software and technologies is available for questions from other team members |
| 6 | Natural Disasters | Natural disaster could make Project members be unable to come into offices | Low | High | Make sure each project member can work from home or somewhere else if a disaster occurs | Keep project members educated on what to do during a disaster and make sure they pay attention to their hygiene in the office |